

ECONOMICS (ECN)

ECN 1410 – Macroeconomics

Credit Hours: 3.00 Total Contact Hours: 3.00 Lecture Hours: 3.00

Provides students with a thorough understanding of essential concepts in practical economics and a solid working vocabulary of economic terms. This foundation enables students to apply problem-solving methods to economic issues in their daily lives.

Offered: Summer, Fall, Spring

Transfer: TAG.

ECN 1430 – Microeconomics

Credit Hours: 3.00 Total Contact Hours: 3.00 Lecture Hours: 3.00

Examines theories of consumer behavior, the determination of input and output prices and quantities, the analysis of international trade and policy, and applications including labor markets and income distribution.

Offered: Summer, Fall, Spring

Transfer: TAG.