

POLITICAL SCIENCE (POL)

POL 1010 – American Government

Credit Hours: 3.00 Total Contact Hours: 3.00 Lecture Hours: 3.00

Provides an overview of the American political system. It explores the institutions and activities which combine to create public policy. It emphasizes political concepts and their transformation into practices which shapes the public good in areas such as justice, equality, freedom, democracy, political parties, and citizenship and their application to local, national, and international issues.

Offered: Summer, Fall, Spring

Transfer: TAG, TM.