

COURSES NOT REQUIRED FOR DEGREE

Under the Department of Education's guidelines, students may receive federal financial aid only for courses required for their degree or certificate. If a student is found to be taking courses that are not required for his/her program, federal financial aid will be adjusted accordingly. It is the student's responsibility to notify the Financial Aid Office if he/she will be taking courses that are not required.